

Do not change Wisconsin's no call list. As citizens, we have the right to not be called. There is no reason or law that states the federal regulations should overturn our state's.